My dream CLIL LOTE lessons – I reflect on and set objectives for my future CLIL lessons

A sample lesson plan for learners' transition from primary to secondary education -
To be used in the language classroom and in other subjects

Level: Secondary level, 1st grade

Duration: one lesson, 90 mins

Short description:

In this sample lesson plan the students will, transitioning from primary to secondary education, reflect on and set objectives for their future CLIL LOTE lessons.

Why is this sample lesson plan interesting?

- The lessons focus on the students setting objectives for future CLIL studies, thus supporting learner autonomy.
- The lessons develop the students' metacognitive and working skills.
- The worksheets can be added to the ELP language biography or to the dossier.
- The worksheet supports plurilingual education including a reflection on the languages (e.g., foreign languages, home languages) that the students would like to use in secondary education.

Main learning objectives for the lesson:

- To set objectives for future CLIL studies
- To develop the students' metacognitive and working skills
- To develop the ability to work cooperatively with others
- To give constructive feedback to peers
- Lower Order Thinking Skills: Remembering, Understanding, Identifying
- Higher Order Thinking Skills: Expressing opinions, Analysing, Evaluating, Creating

Other objectives for the lesson:

To provide information for the teacher on the students' preferences and interest for future CLIL lesson
